Carver Junior-Senior High

Carver Road

Winston-Salem, N.C.

Foreword

Our lives like the fashions and styles of today, are in a state of constant change. Looking back over our four years in high school, we can recall many momentous changes in our lives each year: Our teachers, our interests, our activities, our attitudes-all have changed.

We have also learned lasting values that do not change.

In this volume we have attempted to preserve these memories that you may never forget. Carver High School is a place that has enabled us to prepare ourselves to meet the challenges of tomorrow.

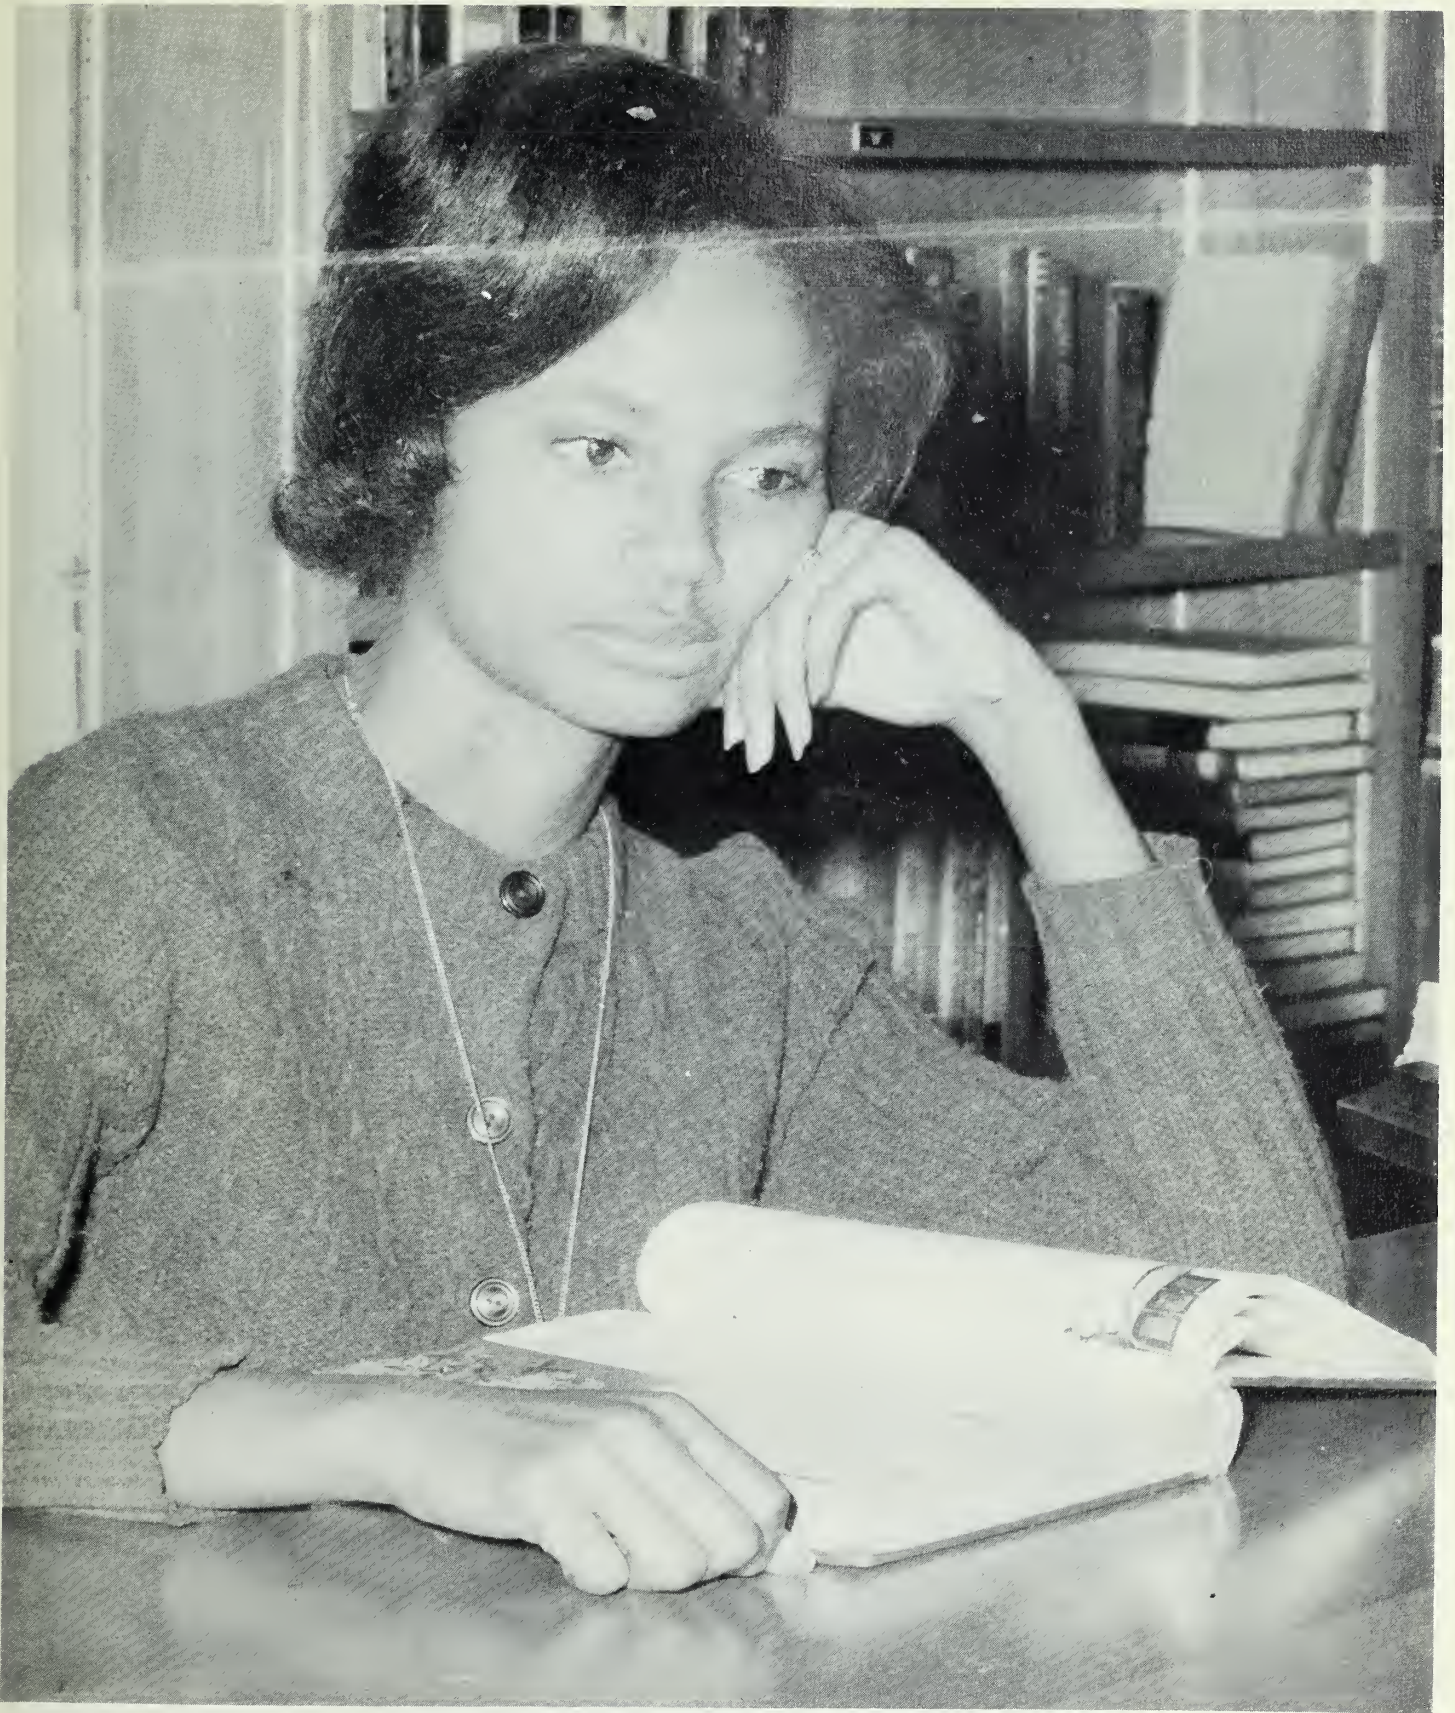

CHS is a place . . .

to create . . .

to meditate . . .

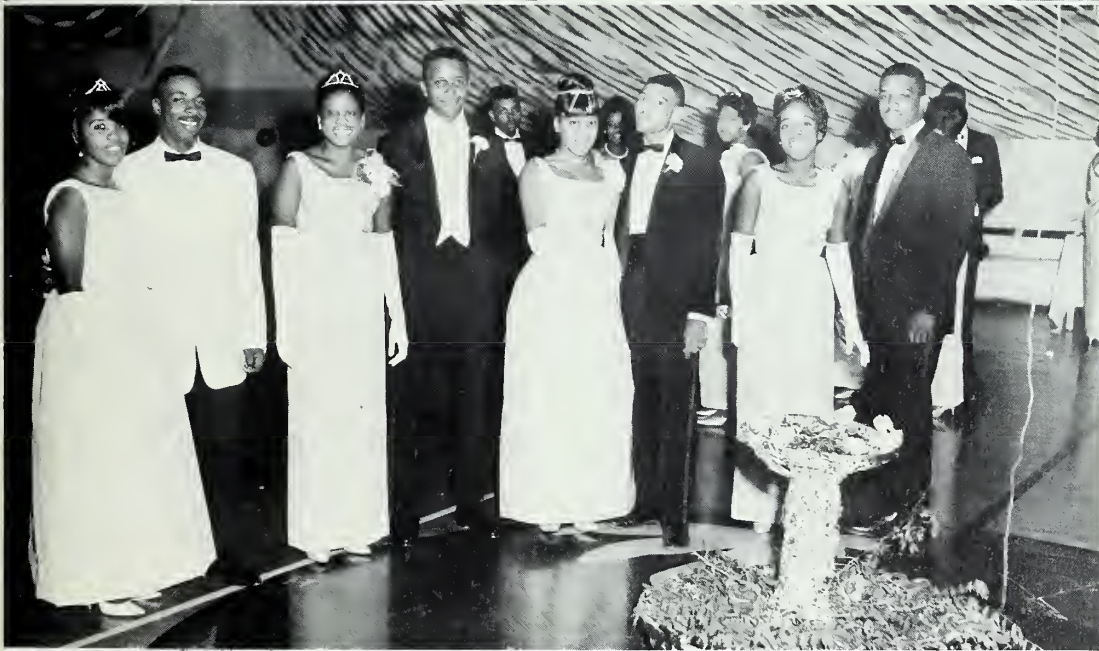

to study . . .

to experiment

to meet new friends . . .

to learn . . .

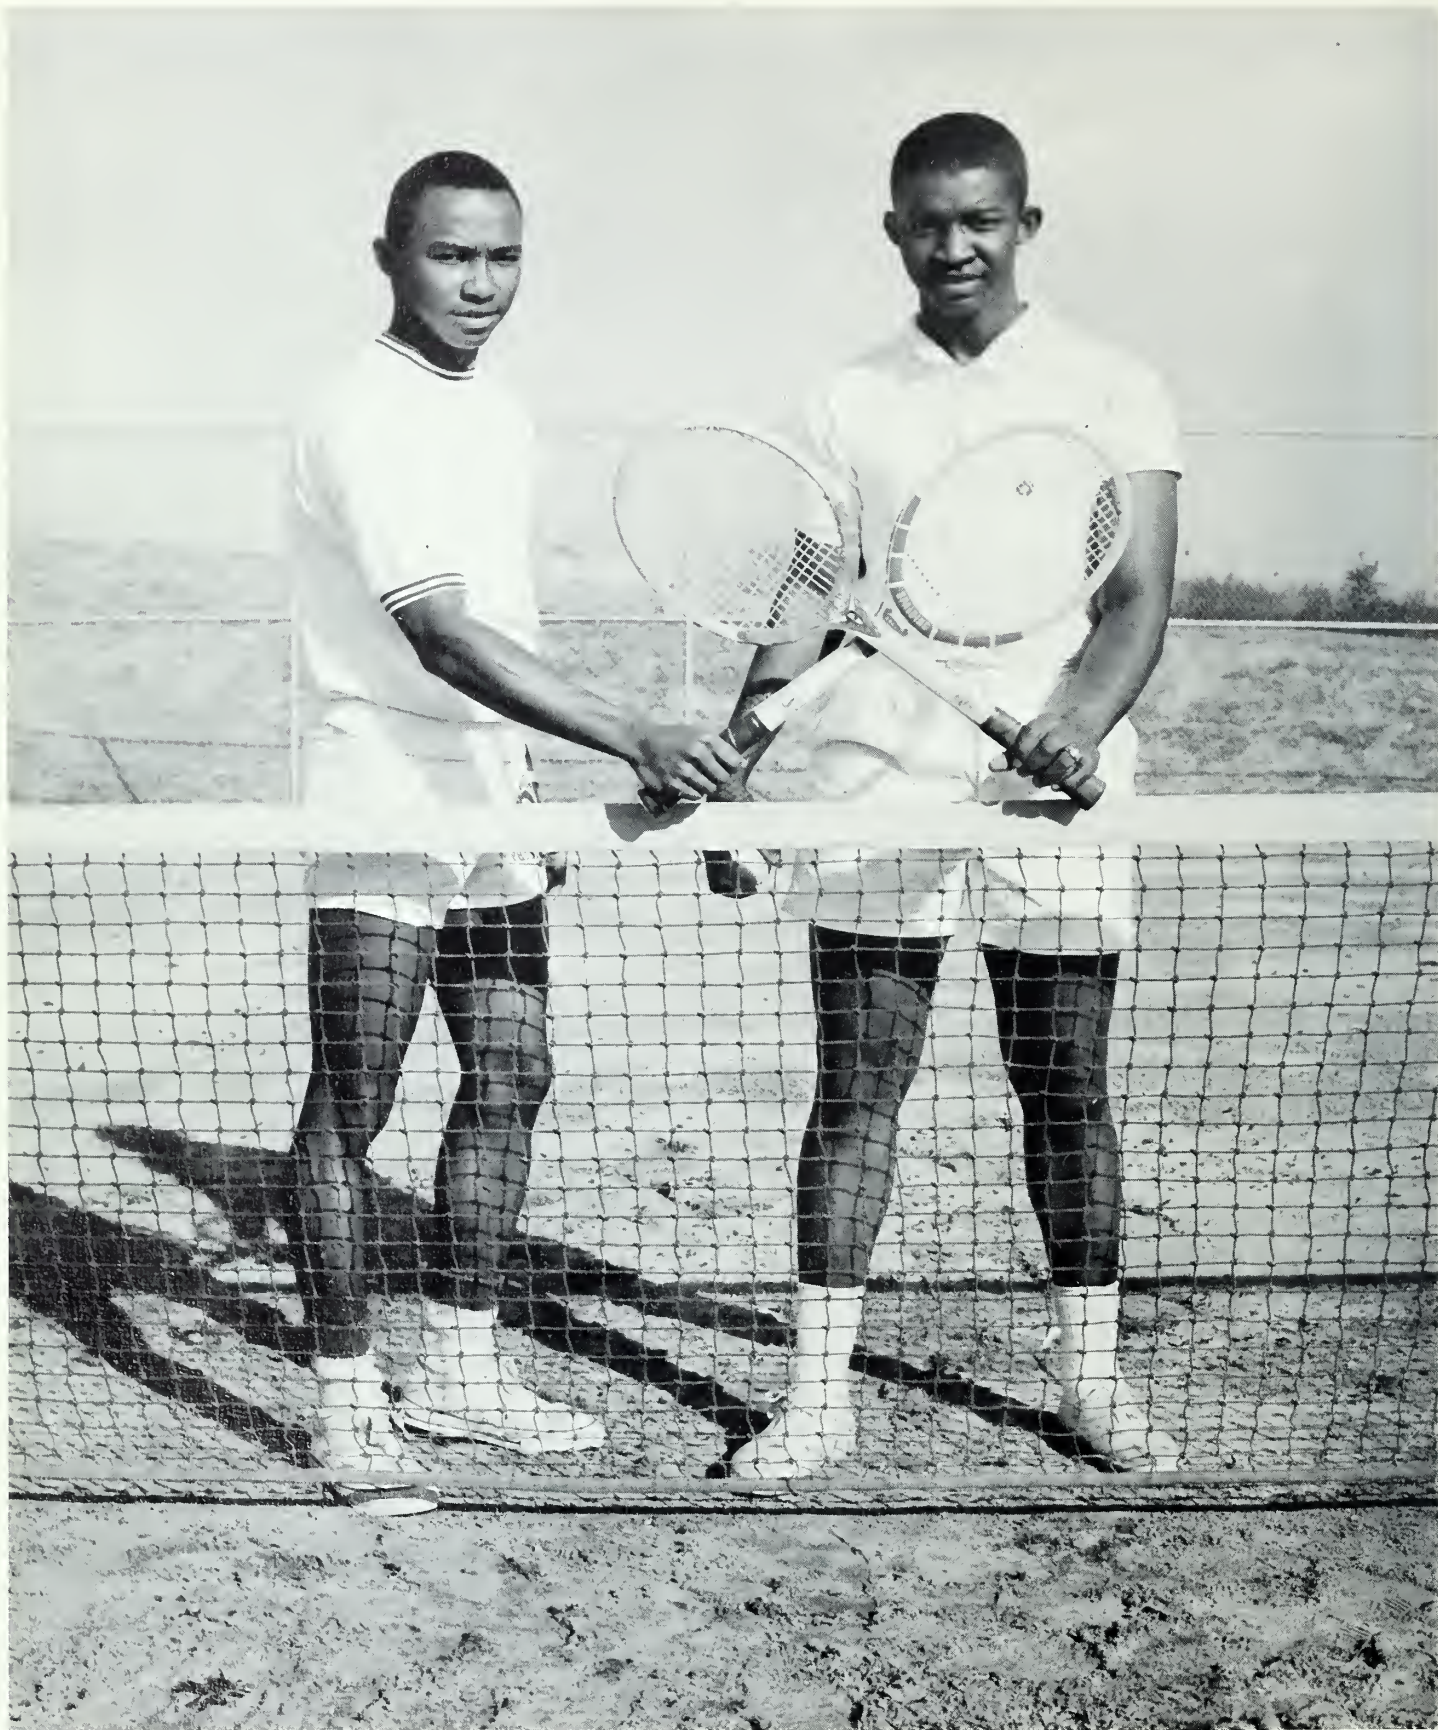

to appreciate culture

to socialize

to learn good sportsmanship to participate . . .

to have fun . . .

to serve others . . .

Mr. Joseph D. Williams

DEDICATION

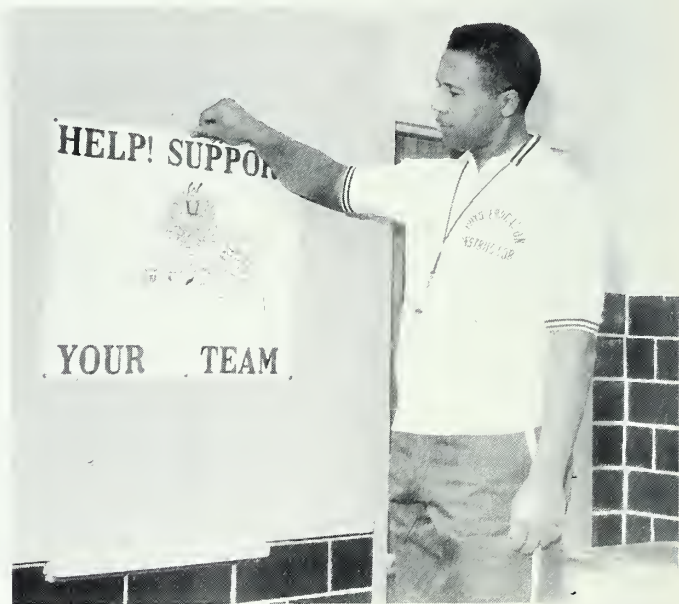

The Yellow Jacket is proudly dedicated to a person for whom everyone has the greatest admiration and respect. As a coach and teacher of the students at Carver Junior-Senior High School, he has done much to instill in them those qualities which will best suit them for their role as useful citizens.

As head coach of both football and basketball, he has done a tremendous job in inspiring the young men to perform in a superior manner.

For these things, we proudly and gratefully dedicate the 1967 Yellow-Jacket to our friend and coach, Mr. Joseph D. Williams.

Coach Williams, a person of high ideals and sparkling personality with leadership abilities, has earned the title of a loyal friend and a capable teacher and coach.

Truly the Yellow Jacket Athletic program offers excellence in competitive events and in the superior school spirit.

OUR PRINCIPAL

Solving the countless problems that arise in keeping a high school running properly is a complicated task, but Principal Frank Thomas handles it smoothly and efficiently.

Mr. Thomas' experience in education has been both as a teacher and as administrator. Before becoming principal of the high school he was principal of Carver Elementary School. He earned a B.S. Degree from Winston-Salem State College and an M.A. Degree from New York University.

Indeed, any student can always be assured that Mr. Thomas will find a moment to discuss any touching area.

Mrs. Doretha H. Black handles her trying job as Assistant Principal with reason and fairness. She has the thankless task of insuring that students respect the rules of the school and the rights of their fellow students. Mrs. Black plays an important role in striving to maintain and improve the academic and extra-curricular program of the high school.

Mrs. Black was graduated from Bennett College and received a masters degree from the University of North Carolina.

Standing: Mrs. Essie Sturdivant, Mrs. K. Garrison, seated.

Vital to the function of our school is the service of our secretaries. The many reports, transcripts, daily bulletins, telephone calls keep them aware that CHS is a place . . .

CHS is a place

Carver High School is a place that exhibits excellence in many ways. Students are given access to a school library, auditorium, and stadium. The school's varied and academic curriculum provides an excellent opportunity for a well-rounded high school education. In cooperation with the guidance department, CHS aids the student in his decision for his future.

CHS is a place

Rarely does a high school student's life begin and end in the classroom. High school memories will include many and varied experiences. Perhaps the tense moments before exams and report cards will fade from the memory. Surely, the excitement of homecoming and other special occasions will not be forgotten.

Class Song

Barbara Bailey

Dear Carver High
We hate to say good-bye,
We're sad and blue,
But we have got to move
To other lands where we can find
New friends, Dear Carver High.

We've had good days
We've had good hours
We've had our up's
We've had our downs
But it's time for us
To leave you now
Dear Carver High.

We'll miss the joys we shared
While we were here
We'll miss the sound of laughter
in our ears.
We'll have no fun like we had when we were here.
Dear Carver High.

Chorus: We've loved you so very dear
We hate to disappear
Out in the world
We're on our own
We'll be all alone to think of you.

Class Poem

It seems that only yesterday,
We began our studies here.
Our love for you, Dear Carver,
Has grown in us each year.

With graduation now so near,
Soon we'll all depart.
O Carver, to us you're so dear
Your memories will remain
Forever in our hearts.

This will not be the end of life,
It's life's real start now that we have reached the crossroads,

And we must now depart.

O Carver, our future is ever near
Because of our learning we'll never fear.
We'd love to remain,
Because you're so swell.

Dear Carver, though it hurts us,
We must say farewell.

Last Will and Testament

We, the graduating class of nineteen hundred and sixty-seven of Carver High School in the city of Winston-Salem, North Carolina, realizing that the close of our school days is near at hand, think it is wise to leave something to those who in future years will undertake to fill our places. Therefore, being of sound mind, we pause here for the purpose of stating our last will and testament.

Since we have tried to be honest, as well as just and generous in our distribution of the many gifts which we now possess, we have finally reached our decisions. Therefore, we hereby give these possessions to certain designated persons whose names shall be recorded herein. We sincerely hope that those who receive them will accept them as sacred tokens from those who have gone before.

To Mr. Frank K. Thomas, our beloved principal, we leave our sincere appreciation for his guidance and leadership.

To our senior advisors, we leave a few gray hairs and our sincere appreciation for their guidance and leadership.

To the Junior Class, we leave the front seats in the auditorium and our best wishes that they will all be successful seniors.

To the Sophomore Class, we leave a little wisdom, to prevent them from making the mistakes that we did on our way to seniority. To individuals we bequeath the following:

1. Hoyt Miller Allen Jr. wills his class ring to his brother, Carl and to Mr. Briggs his seat in his homeroom.
2. Jerry Wayne Anderson wills his basketball suit to John Jowers, his ability to play football to Reginald Jones, to Vyvynne Hunt about twenty-five pounds and all his love to "Amour".
3. Jo-Ann Anthony wills her class ring to Charles Wilson and her ability to keep her mouth shut to Rachel Anthony.

Class Prophecy

Let us focus our eyes into the future and see how the 1967 Senior Class has progressed in ten years. It is now 1977 as I walk along the avenues of success the first persons that I meet are Frank Gwyn and Lorenzo Pearson who are head coaches for the Green Bay Packers and Chicago Bears respectively. They told me that Eugene Gray was with the Harlem Globetrotters and that Franklin Wilson has topped Babe Ruth's home run record. He plays for the New York Mets.

As I stroll along the avenue I see a sign, Hoyt Allen & Sons' Clinic. On his staff are Jo Ann Anthony and Carolyn Elder. He is now in the process of using a new type X-ray machine developed by Patricia Parker and Russell Covington.

Carolyn Howard is now head of staff of doctors at Hope Memorial Hospital. Head nurse at this hospital is Gail Wheeler and working under her are Nurse Mazel McCoy, Nurse Ann Totten and Nurse Arwilda Cannady.

Donald McCoy finally succeed in getting his veterinarian license, and is doing wonderfully well.

Brenda McCutcheon and Cornelius Speas are principals here in the Forsyth County Schools. Working with them as teachers are: Minnie Benson, Spencer Hill, Wilhelmena Moore, Audrey Williams and Roslyn Morrison.

Jacquelyn Grace heads the French Department at Livingston College. Emma Johnson, and Linda Thompson are teachers in this same school. Carolyn Summers is Jacqueline's efficient secretary.

Ulysses Rucker is doing very well in the television world. The writers for his hour long show "People to People" are Jerry Anderson and Wilburn Hayden.

Bobby Lilly and Mozel Duncan are having a successful Career as designers. They are employed by the largest company in the world.

Rev. Gary Ferrell has taken Sweet Daddy Grace's place with Harry Transou, Katherine Scott and Barbara Galloway as his main followers.

Constance Curry is getting ready to board the Pan American Airlines for a flight to Germany. She is to attend the most fabulous University in the country to work on her Doctorate Degree. While she is there she hopes to find her long lost lover, John Williamson.

Can you imagine Ronald Haith now a scientist arguing with Dr. Salk on one of his theories. He has all hopes of winning the issue.

Inez Furches and Susan Jones are stewardesses for Piedmont Airline. Their run is from Winston-Salem, North Carolina to Atlanta, Georgia.

Anita Golden is now matron of the girls dormitory at Winston-Salem State College. Wade Tyner is dietician, and Robert Thompson is dean of men there.

Alene Pinkney has established a secretarial school of her own in Chicago, and working with her are Donna Howell and Mary Goodwin. They have a fine lay-out.

Johnson and Jones T.V. Repair Shops are nation-wide. William and Melvin fly over the United States to see that everything is going smoothly.

Daniel Feaster is a successful lawyer, his associates are Larry Hairston and Gary Allen. They are owners of the building where their offices are located.

Sandy Payne now heads one of the most fabulous restaurants in New York City. Working for him are Eldridge Mitchell and James McCray.

Millionaire Carlton Huntley seems not to be able to find out how to stop making money. He has Benny Crowell and William Puryear as his advisors.

Mary Choate has opened a dress shop. Ruby Cockerham models for the prosperous business. The dresses are high fashion and the prices are reasonable.

Gwendolyn Farmer was the first woman to go in space. Shesays life on the planet Mars is just wonderful.

John Caesar and George Simmons are now prominent members of the NAACP. They have endured many hardships in trying to break the race barriers, but nevertheless they are coming through.

Roger Stewart and Ronald Hauser have the most-in-demand band in the country. They have made many trips abroad.

Elvenor Hairston is working at the United Nations as an interpreter. Cary McMillan aids her.

Claude Sales is now working as night watchman for R. J. Reynolds. Keeping him awake is Napoleon Crowell.

Carolyn Carter Young who has become a prominent model finally married her childhood beau—George Young who is an accountant.

As the curtain is about to fall we can see our very prosperous social workers, Joan Stover, Gwendolyn Hauser, Richard Westley and Barbara Bailey.

I am convinced, after seeing the tremendous amount of progress which our classmates have made that our four years at Carver played a very important part in helping us to fulfill our desires.

Class History

We, the senior class of 1967, aware that our remaining days at Carver High are numbered, pause amidst our various activities to take a glance into the midst of our past. We have spent many days in the halls and classrooms of Carver . . . some good, some bad, some happy, others sad. Yet we have faced and solved our problems which combine to make the "History of the Class of '67."

If we could turn back the hands of time of 1963, we could see an excited and eager freshman class. "Greenhorns! Greenhorns! This was the cry of the upper classmen. We managed to adjust ourselves to our new environment and began to participate. Our class officers were: President, Larry Hairston; Vice-President, Mary Choate; and Secretary, Elvenor Hairston. Our first real experience in Language Arts included a unit on the "World of Work and a trip to the Career-O-Rama. This gave us an idea of what our future would entail. Barbara Bailey, Patricia Parker, Mary Choate, Ruby Cockerham and Anita Golden became New Homemakers of America. Spencer Hill, Ronald Hauser and Roger Stewart became members of the band. Many took an active part in the student government by joining the Student Council.

Before we knew it the year was coming to an end. Jerry Anderson and Elvenor Hairston went to A. and T. College to a science symposium to represent our biology class.

As a result of their hard work in the choir, Alene Pinkney, Mary Hauser and Barbara Galloway "stole" our annual talent show.

Finally June came and a year of hard work and fun was over. George Young, Jean Sellers and Ronald Haith were honored for special achievements in Social Studies. We left school with great anticipation for the fall when we would be sophomores.

After a delightful summer, we again arrived on Carver's Campus. With a year's experience behind us we got right down to hard work. We began to lead scholastically. Our officers were: President, Elvenor Hairston; Vice-President, George Young; and Treasurer, Larry Hairston.

Franklin Wilson took an interest in dramatics. Wilhelmena Moore, Susan Jones and Barbara Galloway were majorettes and Ruby Cockerham made the cheering squad. Those who became Future Teachers of America were: Inez Furches and Jo Ann Anthony. Y-teens included Donna Howell, Mary Goodwin and Mazell McCoy. Lorenzo Pearson, Frank Gwyn, Donald McCoy, James Tatum and Franklin Wilson got their start in football. Among those who remained on the honor roll for four quarters were: George Young, Jean Sellers and Elvenor Hairston. The year ended and another chain of experiences were added to our high school days.

At last we had reached our half-way mark. We entered the halls of Carver with high hopes and great determination. We were stunned when fate took from us our dear and beloved principal, Mr. Carl R. Martin, Jr. He passed on January 18th, a day we shall never forget. Mr. Martin was very concerned with us as students and was a guiding image for us to follow. Not only through our high school days was he prevalent in our lives, but for most of us, during our entire school career up to this point. Mr. Martin's funeral was held in the school auditorium. After mourning the death of our principal, we realized that we still had to strive toward achieving excellence at Carver. With grief of our terrible loss we were more determined.

Mr. Ernest E. Balsley became our new principal. He certainly was not new to any of us because he had been Mr. Martin's assistant for a number of years.

Our officers were: President, Brenda McCutcheon; Vice-President, Daniel Feaster, Jr.; Secretary, Alene Pinkney; and Reporter, Ronald Haith.

The next edition of the Carver Hi-Lite, with Jean Sellers as co-editor and John Caesar, Awilda Cannady and Wilhelmena Moore as staff members, was dedicated to Mr. Carl R. Martin. Linda Thompson and Emma Johnson became Junior Engineers. Eugene Gray, Jerry Anderson and Ronald Haith got their varsity start in basketball.

We made a grand stand performance in representing Carver in various activities. Among the participants were: Catherine Scott, Carolyn Elder and Joan Stover attending the National Science Convention in Raleigh, North Carolina; Daniel Feaster, Jean Sellers and George Young representing Carver on WSJS Television on the annual Junior Town Meeting; Carolyn Carter representing Carver in the Miss Teenage Winston-Salem Contest and Emma Johnson, Daniel Feaster and Brenda McCutcheon attending Bennett Saturday School. Stars in the dramatic production of "The Groom Said No" were Franklin Wilson and Carolyn Carter.

In the spring of '66, the school board made a decision to close Carver for the following year due to its anticipated small enrollment. This occurred when the school board made the decision to cease providing transportation to students outside the Carver District. We, as juniors definitely did not want to see our school closed, for many of us wanted to graduate from the school that had played such a vital role in our lives. John Caesar was very interested in this matter and motivated the students to back us. With this in mind we decided to march to Central Office on the day of the meeting in which the final decision concerning Carver would be confirmed. We stayed out of school that day and both our reasons and our march were very effective. The decision was made to leave our dearly loved school open for another year.

Highlighting our year was the induction of Gwendolyn Farmer, Elvenor Hairston, Brenda McCutcheon, Jean Sellers, George Young and Daniel Feaster into the National Honor Society.

Carver, which has always been the scene of a very conscientious as well as a rugged football team seemed to be on its way out of 4-A competition. In the summer of '66 due to rumors and a very late decision by the school board as to what the future of Carver would be many of the football players made plans for attending other schools because football had made their names. Some of the players confronted with this problem were: Lorenzo Pearson, Jerry Anderson, William Gwyn, George Young and Larry Hairston, just to name a few. The problem was conquered and a rather comfortable football campaign was launched. "Moonlight and Roses," the theme for our Junior-Senior Prom climaxed the events of our junior year.

At last we were seniors. We finally reached the peak of our goal. Many in our group were elected to important positions. James Tatum became president of the Ushers Club. Barbara Galloway was elected head majorette and traffic manager. Awilda Cannady was elected captain of our Letter Girls, flag girls and gun bearers. Our senior class officers were: President, John Caesar; Vice-President, Elvenor Hairston; Secretary, Linda Thompson; Treasurer, Wilhelmena Moore; Sergeant-of-Arms, William Gwyn; and reporter, Awilda Cannady. Brenda McCutcheon became our Student Council President, with Elvenor Hairston as Editor-in-Chief of the Carver Hi-Lite. George Young was elected President of the National Honor Society. Among other participants were: Essie Fulton and Ann Totten in NHA. Patricia Parker and Carolyn Summers in the dance group, Donald McCoy in the Dramatics Club, Jean Sellers, Roslyn Malone and Minnie Benson in the choir along with Mary Hauser. Brenda McCutcheon experienced her first year as a majorette and Elvenor Hairston as a cheerleader.

A Junior Achievement project was sponsored by the business men of our city. Among the achievers selected to participate were: Joan Stover, Jackie Grace, Ronald Haith and Jerry Anderson. Scholastically, George Simmons was one of several seniors remaining on the honor roll. Emma Johnson, Wilburn Hayden, John Caesar, Elvenor Hairston and Jean Sellers are members of the debating club. Taking advance placement courses at Reynolds were Brenda McCutcheon and Daniel Feaster. Boys becoming skilled in trade classes were: Claude Sales, Harry Transou, Carlton Huntley and Cornelius Spease.

The students became very interested in the traffic in our halls and cafeteria. A host of students joined organization which dealt with these problems. Among those on the Traffic Squad were Napoleon Crowell, Joan Stover, Susan Jones, Patricia Parker and Wilhelmena Moore. The cafeteria core included Ann Totten, Linda Thompson and Spencer Hill.

Mazell McCoy highlighted our homecoming events by reigning as "Miss Carver." As the "graduation spirit" hit many of the seniors we found ourselves boosting our basketball team to a victory over Atkins, our rival school. Among those included in the line-up were: Eugene Gray, Frank Gwyn, Ronald Haith and Lorenzo Pearson.

And now the time draws near when we must leave our beloved Carver family. From freshmen to seniors we have had our thrills and joys and our disappointments. We have had the guidance of three principals. With deepest gratitude to those who have helped us up this difficult ladder, we lower the lid on our treasure chest of memories; of our trials as well as our triumphs; of our losses, as well as our gains; memories to be filed away in our cabinets of remembrance, only to be recalled at will.
